Employment Related Assessment and Counselling

This support is designed to provide workplace assessment or counselling to assist customers to successfully engage in employment. (Note: if a customer is employed and on award wages, then in most instances a work place assessment is available through the Employment Assistance Fund administered by JobAccess and is a free service to employers.)

For employment related counselling, this support may benefit customers who have, for example, experienced traumatic injury and need significant support (over and above a mainstream employment related service) to develop a new work pathway.

Workplace Assistance

This support item provides workplace assistance that enables a customer to successfully obtain or retain employment in the open or supported labour market. This support can be supplied to any working age customer (including students reaching working age) with an employment goal. This may include supports to:

- explore what work would mean for them (discovery);
- build essential foundation skills for work;
- managing complex barriers to obtaining and sustaining employment;
- specialised job customisation;
- supports to transition from an Australian Disability Enterprise (ADE) to open employment;
- develop a career plan; and
- other capacity building supports that are likely to lead to successful engagement in a Disability Employment Service (DES).

Note: this support item cannot be used to fund a Certified education course (for example, Certificate I in Workplace Education), even if run within the provider's services, as this would be funded through the Vocational Education system.
